

Eastern 4-H Center Staff Directory

Lynn Cabacar – Administrative Services – Ext. 225 – Lynn began working at the Eastern 4-H Center in 2012 after a career in community banking. Lynn’s primary job responsibilities include maintaining the center’s financial management – invoices, accounts receivable, accounts payable, human resources, payroll, and daily office and administrative duties.

Emily Kirkman – Guest Services & Camp Registration – Ext. 224 – After graduating with her communications degree in 2014, Emily joined the Eastern 4-H Center staff as a guest services specialist. She works with each user group before their arrival to the center, as well as, maintains all camp registration. Emily also creates social media posts, summer camp videos and the center’s newsletters and announcements.

Charles Midgette – Maintenance Supervisor – Ext. 250 – As one of the Eastern 4-H Center’s original staff members, Charles has served the center since 2001. As maintenance supervisor, he oversees housekeeping, all grounds keeping, and facility repairs. Charles dedication and work is visible by every guest at the center from manacured lawns to flushing toilets.

Terri Spear – Housekeeping – Ext. 251 – Terri’s level of cleanliness and sanitation has set the bar high at the Eastern 4-H Center. As a result, the facility maintains a overall rating of a perfect 100 from the regional health department. She assists the maintenance supervisor in repairs and all housekeeping duties. Contact Terri for any Lost and Found items at the Center.

Sara Phelps – Marketing Director – Ext. 222 – Sara has worked at the center since its opening in 2001. As marketing director, she works with potential groups and existing clientele with event reservations daily. She also maintains the center’s marketing efforts including its website and other social media, publicity and community relations. Sara administratively assists the Center’s Advisory Council and represents the center in local and regional organizations.

Samantha Roughton – Food Services Supervisor – Ext. 240 – As the newest member of the Eastern 4-H Center team, Samantha brings over nine years of experience to her position as food services supervisor. She manages all kitchen staff, their work schedules, menu planning, inventory control and facility cleanliness. Samantha is ServSafe certified and with her staff maintains a perfect 100 sanitation rating by the regional health department.

Jenn Standish – Center Director – Ext. 226 – Jenn began her employment at the Eastern 4-H Center in February 2017. Growing up in New York, she loved the outdoors. This love for the outdoors combined with her childhood experiences in Girl Scouts directed her in a career of youth development and education. Jenn received her BS in Environmental Science and MS in Recreation. Jenn brings almost 20 years of professional camp and recreation experience to the center.

For more information, call us at (252) 797-4800